Core Values and Visions

The State Audit Office of the Kingdom of Thailand is poised for transformative growth under the visionary leadership of its new Auditor General, Mr. Monthien Charoenpol.

With a clear and inspiring motto, "Developing capable, public-spirited and digitally enabled staff," Mr. Monthien sets forth a six-year development plan aimed at enhancing the institution's effectiveness and integrity.

❖ Developing Capable and Virtuous Staffs

At the core of Mr. Monthien's vision is the development of capable and virtuous staffs. Recognizing that the strength of any organization lies in its people, he emphasizes the need for continuous professional development. This involves not only enhancing audit technical skills but also fostering ethical standards and a sense of duty among the staff. By cultivating a workforce that is both competent and morally upright, the State Audit Office can ensure that its audits are conducted with the highest level of integrity and reliability.

❖ Equipping with Digital Technology

In an era where technology is rapidly transforming every aspect of governance and accountability, Mr. Monthien's vision includes a strong focus on digital transformation. By equipping the staff with the latest digital tools and technologies, the State Audit Office aims to improve the efficiency and accuracy of its audits. This technological advancement will not only streamline processes but also enhance data analysis capabilities, enabling auditors to detect irregularities and fraud more effectively.

❖ Commitment to Public Spirit

Public spirit, or a strong sense of responsibility towards the public, is a cornerstone of Mr. Monthien's vision. He believes that the ultimate goal of the State Audit Office is to serve the public interest. This involves ensuring that public funds are used efficiently and transparently, and that government operations are conducted in a manner that benefits society at large. By instilling a commitment to public-mindedness in every staff member, Mr. Monthien aims to build a culture of accountability and service within the organization.

❖ The Path Forward

Mr. Monthien Charoenpol's six-year plan for the State Audit Office of the Kingdom of Thailand is both comprehensive and forward-looking. By focusing on the development of capable and virtuous staff, equipping them with cutting-edge digital technology, and fostering a strong commitment to public spirit, he envisions an institution that not only meets the challenges of today but also anticipates and prepares for the challenges of tomorrow.

This strategic vision reflects a deep understanding of the evolving role of supreme audit institutions in modern governance. It underscores the importance of integrity, efficiency, and public accountability in building trust and confidence in government operations. As the State Audit Office embarks on this transformative journey, it stands as a testament to the enduring value of visionary leadership and a steadfast commitment to the public good.
